MAIL REPORTS ON TIME!

A REMINDER TO HOME CAPTAINS:

Home Captains should call in the results of each home dart match immediately upon completion of the match. Captains may email the results of the match if they prefer.

These early results will be posted on the league website and emailed to all captains as soon as possible after they are received.

Home Captains should continue to mail the results as well so that individual notables and verification of results can be maintained.

Updated results with individual notables will also be posted and emailed to all captains after they have been received and processed in the league office.
